

Request for Proposals

Youth Development and Culture Grant Program

Federal Formula Title II Sub Awards

I. Introduction

The State of Alaska, Department of Health and Social Services (DHSS), Division of Juvenile Justice (DJJ) Delinquency Prevention CFDA #16.540 has awarded the Rural Alaska Community Action Program, Inc. (RurAL CAP award #609-237-18001) grant funding to issue sub-award grants to rural, Alaska Native communities with the purpose of reducing the disproportionate number of minority youth who come into contact with the juvenile justice system. RurAL CAP is requesting proposals from eligible applicants to provide Division of Juvenile Justice Formula Title II services for the State of Alaska. Program Services are authorized under AS 47.14.010(6) General Powers of Department over Juvenile Institutions; AS 47.05.010(7) Duties of Department; and 7 AAC 78 (Grant Programs). Access State of Alaska statutes and regulations at <http://www.law.state.ak.us/doclibrary/doclib.html>.

The purpose of the Youth Development and Culture Grant Program is to reduce the disproportionate number of minority youth who came into contact with the juvenile justice system. Alaska Natives make up approximately 15% of youth ages 12-17 in Alaska while making up approximately 30% of these youth referred to the Division of Juvenile Justice each year. The Division continues to make efforts to improve communications with and understanding of Alaska Native youth, families and communities. The DJJ recognized the need to collaborate and team with agencies that have the cultural knowledge, community connections and expertise to enhance and strengthen its work with Alaska Native youth, families and communities.

The Youth Development and Culture Grant Program targets both a reduction in the disproportionate contact Alaska Native youth have with the juvenile justice system in Alaska, and an increase in the ability of the Alaska Native communities ultimately funded through this program to better develop and manage DHSS grant programs.

Proposals must demonstrate a thorough understanding of the grant program goals and outcomes; and proposed projects must meet or exceed anticipated minimums described in this RFP. Proposals must include a description of proposed activities that support the goals and outcomes to be employed in the project. The applicant must also include a timeline for the project.

RurAL CAP is soliciting proposals for community projects that are innovative and implement either culture activities/camps or leadership development.

VI. Eligible projects

1. Culture camps provide spiritual and cultural guidance for youth and stress community responsibility, not just individual rights. These camps teach sharing and hard work, respect for nature and for all people, celebration of language and heritage, the virtues of respect and cooperation, and reverence for Elders.

And/or

2. Leadership development to support youth in developing the knowledge and self-confidence to speak out and create change within themselves and to encourage youth to find the task of maintaining traditional Native values and practices, while thriving in the modern world.

There are many projects that could be implemented with this funding. In order to have a stronger impact on the youth that participate, consider applying for funding for a series of cultural and youth leadership activities. Some examples of eligible projects to be awarded through this competition include:

- A series of subsistence camping trips, including recruiting participants, gathering supplies, and designing activities such as taking the youth silver salmon fishing and inviting an Elder to help teach how to prepare them for subsistence. Other activities might include teaching basic camping skills, moose calling, tracking and fly fishing.

- A Spirit Camp focused on connecting youth to cultural activities and outdoor enjoyment. Activities could include canoe races, fishing, cooking, hiking, arts and crafts like beading, and games. Elders and adults can provide guidance, stories, and teachings.
- A cultural identity project to help youth work with the community and Elders. The youth can interview Elders and other community members, then write the stories and take pictures. Through this project, the youth will learn about their ancestors as well as basic life skills.
- Youth Leadership training that includes bringing a national or statewide trainer to your community to work with youth. Also, funds for youth can also be used to develop leadership skills through conferences.

Successful project proposals should also include a commitment to documenting the project in a way that can be shared and replicated. Assistance in capturing the project will be available from the administrator.

Examples of how projects may be shared with other communities include producing brochures, videos, slide shows, hand-outs, web-based presentations, or other documentation of the changes that occurred, the steps that were taken, the lessons learned, and the resources and supplies needed to implement a similar project.

If you have any questions about whether a project is appropriate for this funding source, please contact the Rural CAP staff person listed below.
